

HOME SIT PRO

HOME MANAGEMENT

You leave, we take care of everything!

Home Sit Pro provides luxury home watch and care services for homeowners who travel, own seasonal properties, or manage secondary residences.

Whether you're gone for a week, a season or managing an Airbnb from a distance, we ensure your property is safe, secure, and perfectly maintained. Our services include full interior and exterior checks, mail and package pickup, plant care, cleaning, and customized home readiness prep for your return or incoming guests.

Your home deserves more than just being left empty. With House Sit Pro Home Management, you get trusted care, security, and maintenance for your property- so you can travel, rent or relax with zero stress.

Airbnb

In addition to caring for your home, Home Sit Pro Home Management we also offer full-service Airbnb and short-term rental management.

Including

- Guest check-in/check out coordination
- Professional cleaning and restocking
- Property walkthroughs between stays
- 24/7 on call service for guest issues
- Maintenance scheduling and oversight

If you've got an Airbnb or short-term rental property, I can manage the day to day from cleaning and guest turnover to maintenance – so it stays five – star without you lifting a finger

How does it work?

We meet for a free consultation, and we customize a plan for your property, handle all the maintenance and check ins, and keep you updated, so you can relax knowing your home is in trusted hands.

- 1. We start with a free consultation to understand your property, your needs, and how often you want check ins or services. This is where we create a personalized care plan for your home.
- 2. We handle every detail from routine inspections and maintenance to coordinating cleaning, stocking and guest prep- we take care of everything, so your home stays protected while you're away.
- 3. To stay informed we will send you reports and pictures during your check in. You'll know exactly what's happening with your home without lifting a finger.
- 4. You can relax and enjoy whether you're traveling, managing an Airbnb, or away for the season, your home is in trusted hands-always safe, spotless and guest ready.
